

The Wanamaker Store.

Things to See

THE Rotunda Tableau, "Christmas in Church and Home," is earning us more kind comment than anything we have ever shown.

The Bench Show of Dogs, fifth floor, of which mention is made below, will attract many.

The Holiday Bazaar, fifth floor, is a fine show, with everything arranged for quick picking, and much chance for rich picking.

The Art Room, basement, contains more beauty than we can tell about. It took months of hunting the world around to fill it.

There is more to tell, but we'll make another story of that. Meanwhile, come and see.

Holiday Dress Goods

Never, in all the years behind us, have we been so well prepared to suit your tastes in holiday giving of dress patterns. Character, quality and low figures—these are the chief points of advantage. Variety and exclusiveness come in close order.

Here are suggestions galore. Note the savings. There's no holiday "price-boosting" here. If you wish, we will pack any of your purchases in a neat box.

THESE IN COLORS

At 50c. yd., instead of 75c.—All-wool French Granites; 41 in. wide; 9 colorings.

Rotunda and Fourth Avenue.

Fifty Women's Jackets

Here's a lot of 50, in about as many styles. Fine goods, ones and twos of sold-out sorts, and formerly priced at $18.75, $20, $22 and $25. Black, tan and navy blue kersey. Take your choice at

$15 Each

A short story full of "meat." Only fifty, mind you.

Second floor, Broadway.

Women's Hosiery

Did you know that there were some sorts of cotton stockings that cost more than good sorts of silk ones? We have some cotton stockings here at $6 a pair. They are made from the finest cotton made or known. A pair weighs but one ounce. They are silkier than silk itself.

That's only a small part of the hosiery story, however. Here's a little more:

At 3 pairs for 50c.—Of fast black cotton; seasonable weight; all-black, unbleached feet and split soles; would be cheap at 25c. a pair.

At 3 pairs, or 3 pairs for $1.—Of fast black fine gauge cotton; light, medium and heavy weight; also black with unbleached feet and split soles.

At $4 a pair—French and English pure silk stockings; opera length, with lace ankles.

French Garters

Combinations of ribbons and laces, gauzes and velvets, bows and rosettes, many styles in the extensive showing. They've just come to us from a maker noted for his handiwork in this line, and are shown in the "Little French Store," 75c. to $7.

The Havelock Mackintosh

A mackintosh for men, and especially intended for wear over evening dress. Just arrived from a London maker distinguished for ideas of this sort. Light weight, blue and black, rough-surfaced cloth, made with deep, swinging cape and no sleeves, like an Inverness overcoat.

If you guessed the price, you'd say $25. You'd be ten dollars too high.

Men's Furnishing Store, Ninth street.

A Dog Show

Up on the fifth floor is a Bench Show of dogs. Three-fifths of these are pet dogs;—by which we do not mean merely lap-dogs, but house-broken and highly civilized animals that will come into your home-circle with propriety and honor and credit.

It's a unique show, and one worth seeing if you have a warm side for our four-footed friends. We have tried hard to get the best dogs available. Almost all are long-pedigreed canine aristocrats, of dignified behavior and strong but carefully bestowed affections. But there are numbers of happy-go-lucky puppies, whose reckless enthusiasm takes little heed of their noble birth, and whose ridiculous behavior is as delightful as their most engaging desire to make acquaintance.

All these dogs are for sale, if you wish to buy. But, primarily, they are to look at and make friends with.

Fifth floor, Ninth street.

Marbles, Braces, Art Bronzes, Vases

The bric-a-brac Art Room in the basement is of unusual interest these days. The best of the world produces, and a fair representation of all the best. Thousands of pieces at almost as many prices. From a prettily decorated vase at only 20c. to a Royal Vienna vase at $250.

From a bronze bust at $4 to a fine bronze group at $325.
From a French china plate at 30c. to a Royal Vienna plate at $25.
French mounted vases, Russian enamel, $7.50 to $50.
French mounted vases, Sevres effect, $4 up to $225 each.
Royal Vienna vases, newest and richest styles, $4.50 up to $250 each.
Toilet sets, consisting of 4 brushes and mirror, porcelain painted, backs, $6 per set.
Royal Bonn vases, new decorations, $1.50 up to $22.50 each.
Mention was recently made of the arrival of an import of Porcelain Plaques, handsomely painted and set in Florentine frames. They lasted but a short time and a second shipment has just been opened. $2.50 to $100 each.

Basement.

Austrian China Novelties

Bright, artistic, effective articles that closely resemble the finer productions of the French. You'll find it hard to detect the difference—in appearance. In price there's a marked difference. These are priced at about half the cost of French china. Here's a great lot of very acceptable holiday remembrances:

Plates, $4, $5, $6, up to $36 doz.
Chop Plates, $2 and $4 each.
Salads, $2 and $6 each.
Punch Bowls, $3.50, up to $12 each.
Chocolate Jugs, $2 and $3.50 each.
Cake Plates, $2 and $3 each.
Celery Trays, $1.25 and $1.50 each.
Bon-bon Dishes, $2.50 to $5 each.
Ink Stands, 60c. to $3.50 each.
Pen Boxes, 75c. each.
Stamp Boxes, $1.25 each.
Ring Trays, 50c. and 60c. each.
Cups and Saucers, 50c., up to $2.25 each.

Basement.

Velvet Chatelaine Bags

We have a great many of these, but they're too pretty and too moderately priced to last long.

Some of all velvet, at $1.50 to $2.25.
Some with German silver frames, at $2.75 to $4.50.
Some with sterling silver frames, at $6.75 to $12.

Basement.

Pocket-books and Card-cases

Any thought of these in your holiday planning? In so great and varied a stock as this choosing must be easy—as are the prices. These are an illustration of how low:

At $1.—A pocket-book of Morocco; calf-lined; mounted with heavy French gray silver. Think you'll see it priced $1.50 in most other stores.
At $1.—Pocket-books of seal, alligator, monkey, morocco and levant; plain sterling or sterling gilt trimmings.
At $3 to $8.—Card-cases of imitation cork, plain or mounted.
At $4 to $8.—Combination pocket-books of imitation cork.
At $1 and $1.50.—Children's tuck or combination pocket-books.

Also a large collection of fine imported pocket-books in the newest shapes.

Three Quotations—Make Your Own Deductions

In general bring a double loss on their readers—they rob them both of their time and money; representing men, manners and things that never have been, nor are likely to be; either confounding or perverting history and truth, inflating the mind or committing violence upon the understanding."—Mary Wortley Montagu.

"No chair is so much wanted in our colleges as that of a professor of books."—Emerson.

"He that revels in a well-chosen library has innumerable dishes, and all of admirable flavor."—W. Godwin.

THE INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY is "well-chosen"—the best contributions of the poet, orator, philosopher, novelist, humorist, dramatist, of every age and clime—each complete in itself—the best reading for your every mood. You have neither "time" nor "money" to lose.

The 20 large volumes sent to your home on 10 days' approval. Only $1 down, then 15 monthly payments of $2 each—just half the publisher's price. Our special edition is going fast—more than 100 copies a day for it seems to be just the thing for a Christmas present—so appropriate for all; and then it is such big value for little money, and so much time to pay. Do not delay, for you may be too late.

The Book Store, Ninth street.

We have them at $5.50 each, and up to $30, with about twenty styles at prices between. Some very handsome ones at only moderate cost.

Some in new elaborate designs in the higher-priced sorts. They're principally of oak and mahogany; all with mirror tops.

Fourth floor.

We never did such a book business as this before, and you know there is no larger retail book business in America than ours.

The reasons are these. First, we have every wanted book (and you have no idea what that means in stock carried); and, secondly, we have them at prices that are fair and reasonable and right.

We are making a specialty of the Wanamaker editions of well-known writers. The right sort of gift-books;—no namby-pamby uselessness but earnest, honest, virile writing of many kinds, prettily bound and low priced.

Other sets are plentiful and other bindings. This list may help you to what you want:

Victor Hugo's Novels. Large clear type. Nearly 1000 illustrations. 13 vols. $26. Our price, $7.50.
Henryk Sienkiewicz's Historical Romances, Quo Vadis, With Fire and Sword, The Deluge, 2 vols. Our price, $37.50.
Celtic Trays, $1.25 and $1.50 each.
Bon-bon Dishes, $2.50 to $5 each.
Ink Stands, 60c. to $3.50 each.
Pen Boxes, 75c. each.
Stamp Boxes, $1.25 each.
Ring Trays, 50c. and 60c. each.
Cups and Saucers, 50c., up to $2.25 each.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

For Christmas House-Decking.

Cushions.—Blessings on the Orientals who taught us how to make them! On corner seats and settles masses of them are needed.—On easy chairs, sofas, even the floor,—cushions everywhere, for color accents as well as comfort.

Of the heavier sorts, our finest are those covered with antique Persian saddle-bags, showing a rich shaven and glorious color combinations, like the Iran rugs themselves.

Of the lighter sorts, beautiful Oriental and modern cotton stuffs, and quaint tapestries which might have been made in the Middle Ages.

Our cushion-carnival is full of ideas for Christmas decking.

Our warerooms are full, too, of the latest furniture fancies, at factory prices, as you
